Dr. Rick Sparks, Professor

February 19, 2019

To whom it may concern:

This letter is to endorse Connor Boulet's application for a college internship with you. During his time at North Greenville University, Connor has worked diligently as a mass communication major. As one of the professors in his major, I have witnessed Connor's solid work ethic, his friendly and outgoing disposition and his commitment to excellence in all he does. Connor is an excellent candidate for your internship program and I am happy to endorse his application without reservation.

Sincerely,

Rick Sparks, Ph.D.
Professor, Mass Communication
